

AAU E-NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER 2020 - ISSUE 104

Issued by the Public Relation Office at AAU
p.relation@aau.ac.ae

جامعة العين
AL AIN UNIVERSITY

الإمارات العربية المتحدة
وزارة التربية والتعليم

A virtual celebration of the Saudi National Day

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University (Al Ain and Abu Dhabi) campuses, organized a virtual meeting with AAU students of the Saudi Nationality on the occasion of the 90th Saudi National Day, in the presence of Prof. Ghaleb Al-Refae, AAU President, the Deans, Prof. Ibtehal Abu Rezeq, Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Hani Al-Jarrah, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, and Saudi Student.

Al-Refae congratulated the leadership of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Saudi nation and the Saudi students, wishing the kingdom, continued progress and prosperity.

He pointed the importance of bilateral relations between the United Arab Emirates and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, which is considered as a good example of cooperation, solidarity and human brotherhood. He assured the Saudi students that, Al Ain University is keen to take care of them and provide them with all forms of support.

READ MORE

AAU and the Arab Council for Training discuss the Student Exchange Challenges

Al Ain University represented by Prof. Ibtehal Aburezeq, Dean of Student Affairs and the Assistant Secretary General of the Student Affairs Deanships, participated in the virtual symposium entitled, Student training exchange which emphasized on the importance, characteristics, and challenges, organized by the Arab Council for Training Students of Arab Universities.

The seminar was headed by Prof. Fawaz Al Zghoul, Director of the Arab Council, and presented by the two speakers; Dr. Salem Al Hasanat, President of the Arab Center for Training and Rehabilitation, and Dr. Suhaila Helsa, An expert in the field of training from the Faculty of Nursing at the University of Jordan.

The symposium discussed the importance and advantages of student exchange between Arab universities in order to develop student's skills through the field training and to be benefited from the experiences of other Arab universities. They also discussed the challenges which they face, especially in light of the current situation in all over the world due to the Covid-19 pandemic, with an emphasis on the need to overcome difficulties and find solutions to preserve continuity of student exchange.

READ MORE

AAU and Abu Dhabi Police spread the first aid culture virtually

The Deanship of Student Affairs (Al Ain Campus) organizes in cooperation with Abu Dhabi Police General Headquarters (Public Safety and Emergency Services Section / Al Ain) a virtual workshop on first aid, presented by Mrs. Auda bin Ghalab and Mr. Khaled Al Saadi.

The workshop started with an overview about Covid-19 and how to prevent it, by wearing the mask and gloves, following precautionary measures, and applying social distancing. After that, the presenters introduced the First Aid types, qualities that must be characterized by the medic, how to intervene with emergency types of wounds and bleeding, or if there is a strange thing inside the body and in the fire cases. And it aims to train the students on how to provide primary care to save a life of any person who may be exposed to emergency health cases which is considered as an initial aid until a specialized person arrives and provide medical care for the patient or to be transferred to the nearest hospital or medical clinic.

READ MORE

The College of Pharmacy meets its new students Virtually

The College of Pharmacy at Al Ain University, Al Ain and Abu Dhabi campuses, organized a virtual meeting through Microsoft Teams with its new students who joined the university in the first semester of the academic year 2020/2021-. In the presence of Dr. Khairi Mustafa, Dean of the College of Pharmacy, Dr. Mohammed Ghattas, Deputy Dean, academic staff and pharmacy students. The Pharmacy Dean, welcomed the new students, wishing them an academic year full of positivity and success, and advising them to be diligent and handworkers, stressing

READ MORE

A Virtual lecture on immunity boosting delivered by AAU and Mediclinic

As part of the virtual event organized by Al Ain University in Abu Dhabi and Al Ain campuses, the Deanship of Student Affairs at the Abu Dhabi campus organized a virtual lecture entitled Boosting Your Immune System presented by Mrs. Dina Jamal, Clinical Dietitian at Mediclinic Hospital, via the Zoom app.

She provided a detailed explanation of the human immune system, how it works and how the healthy nutrition is enhancing the immunity system.

Mrs. Dina also talked about a group of nutrients and minerals that contribute in enhancing immunity, and situations that may need vitamin supplements.

READ MORE

Virtual Library Orientation for New Faculty Members and Students

Khalifa library in Al Ain University (Al Ain and Abu Dhabi campus) organized a virtual orientation for new faculty members and students who joined in the first semester of the academic year 2020/2021.

During the orientation, Dr. Abdoulaye Kaba, Library Director and Mrs. Lina Abu Libdeh library supervisor in Abu Dhabi campus, explained to the participants the available library resources and services supported by a live demonstration and a virtual tour inside the library. The speakers focused on digital library collections and their role in supporting distance learning.

READ MORE

A Virtual Visit to Qasr Al Hosn

As part of its first activities for the academic year 2020/2021, the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University, Abu Dhabi campus, organized a virtual visit to Qasr Al Hosn, guided by Ms. Kholoud Al Nuaimi and Ms. Fatima Al Taniji via the Microsoft Teams app.

The virtual visit included an introductory tour of Qasr Al Hosn and the Cultural Complex, where the guides gave a detailed explanation about the oldest historical building in Abu Dhabi which also contains the first permanent architectural structure in the city, namely, the control tower, which was built in the 1890s to protect Abu Dhabi's coastal trade routes and protection of the growing communities on this island. The tour also included a detailed explanation of the cultural complex that contains the largest children's library in the Middle East.

READ MORE

